A. Please comment on the following areas and be as specific as possible:

1. What are the instructor's teaching strengths?

- Goes out of his way to assist his students and make sure they comprehend the material.
- Goes over examples
- He gives very easy to understand explanations and is very direct with his answers. He is very helpful and tries to understand the students' questions to the best of his abilities.
- He goes over the important concepts in class, provides relevant examples, and answers student's questions clearly.
- He is very good at showing example problems that are useful while doing webworks, and can help prepare us for exams.
- He is very passionate about math and he is easily accessible. He responds to answers quickly and is always available during office hours and beyond. He is very kind and caring.
- He makes the topics easier to understand and explains everything really well. He makes himself available to us whenever he can. It's also great that he makes study/review sessions for us before an exam.
- He teaches what needs to be taught
- He was very knowledgeable and helped us out as much as he could. He was responsive and helped me in office hours and through email whenever I was struggling. He knows his material and was very helpful. Good TA and would enroll in another math course with him.
- His clarity and enthusiasm.
- Interactive, breaking things down
- n/a
- Nice
- Reviewing things
- understanding and always willing to help. uses many examples similar to quiz questions.
- very enthusiastic, knows all the material well, very friendly and willing to do whatever to have the students succeed
- Willing to take his time to explain something.
- 7 blank answer(s).

2. How can this instructor improve as a teacher?

- Be more interactive actually want to be there
- He can go over more difficult problems instead of easy ones.
- He was good.
- I like him good teacher
- It would be better if he could show examples that would be more difficult or trickier to solve so that if we come across these questions during the exams, we would know how to approach the problem.
- more review sessions?
- n/a
- none
